

Bible Stories Alive on A Visit with Mrs. G

April 2014

Kitty Anna Griffiths D. Lit.
Author of Bible Stories Alive

My dear Friend,

Six months ago I wrote to you about our 40th anniversary project. We called it China—40th Anniversary Prayer Project. Chinese Christians had asked us for Bible Stories Alive in Chinese. But the project was so immense that we hesitated to say yes, so we called it a Prayer Project.

We asked you to pray with us that the Lord would provide His “chosen Chinese servants” to translate and voice the stories and place them on Internet and radio. And God has answered our prayers.

Two months ago the President of Trans World Radio (TWR) Canada came to the Granary to present us with a plaque.

In honor of A Visit with Mrs. G
for 40 years of loyal partnership and faithful proclamation of God's Word
Internationally.

2013

“For from you sounded out
the Word of the Lord...”
1 Thessalonians 1:8

This was a surprise. But we had a bigger surprise. When Gerald mentioned our China Prayer Project, the President of TWR Canada and his colleague offered us the services of TWR's China Ministry Development team and their studio in Toronto.

After a meeting with TWR leaders, our Board have decided to proceed. We are going to begin with the story of Creation (Genesis 1-4) and the story of Noah (Genesis 5-11).

TWR will provide the talent and the technology and A Visit with Mrs. G Ministries will pay the expenses.

The cost of translating and producing Bible Stories Alive in Chinese in audio and e-books will be considerable. Pray that the Lord will supply all the money that will be required. Pray too that TWR's team will be inspired by the Holy Spirit.

Thank you for being a partner with us. We marvel at what God has done in the last 40 years through His Word. Now God is giving us this astonishing privilege: to tell the children of China that God loves them. There are 300 million children in China. Jesus said, “Let the children come to me.” Let's do all we can.

With my love and thanks.

The China Project

Dr. William Tsui, Director of China Ministry Development for Trans World Radio, explains why Mrs. G's Bible stories are urgently needed in China.

Sunday schools

For many years, the government of China did not allow anyone to share the Gospel message with children and young people under the age of 18 years old. But this restriction has been gradually loosened. Children's Sunday schools are being allowed in many churches (though they might not call them Sunday schools). Also, Children's Sunday school materials are being printed inside China.

“Stay behind children”

Since parents have to go to the city to work, many children are left behind at home, and these are being called the “Stay behind children”. Christians take care of these children. Churches provide programs to help these children and, whenever possible, share Bible teachings with them.

Christian parents

Christian parents want to bring up their children in Christ. Some parents have accepted Christ overseas and have returned to China. These are first-generation Christians. Of course, most parents have always lived in China. Some are first-generation Christians and others have been Christians for generations.

All these groups need good biblical material to share with the children about God and the Christian faith.

Mrs. G's stories, with the questions after the stories, will be a very effective tool to reach and teach these children. Church pastors, children's workers and Christian parents will be delighted to have this wonderful and powerful tool for their ministry to their children.

Many have heard about this project—Bible Stories Alive in Chinese—and are already asking how soon they can have the stories in Mandarin so that they can use them as soon as possible. The demand is already there. Once the Chinese version is out, the stories will be greatly welcomed by many in China as well as by Chinese groups overseas.

Dear Mrs G

Your understanding of child life and the simplicity with which you narrate deep theological truths is just amazing. No child can resist your interesting, persuasive, and convincing story-telling. —an adult listener in England

Being a parent who wishes that my children will grow up with understanding of the Word of God, you are a great blessing. My kids can catch up with you very well. Please provide more lessons. —listener of Radio Sahara, Kenya

I'm a big fan! I grew up listening to these stories. Even after having a great Bible School education (after being raised as a Missionary Kid), so much of my foundation was from your tapes. Thank you! I can't wait for my kids to listen to them. —K. D., USA

I am a listener to your program on Worship FM 101.7 (Liberia). My name is A.K. and I am [was] a Muslim. My friends had been telling me about Jesus Christ. It used to be very hard for me to believe them. I went around places where pastors were preaching and I tried to understand what they were saying. But I understand now. I do believe that Jesus Christ is Lord. Thanks for the program A Visit with Mrs. G.
